

u^b

Public Transport

Getting around in Switzerland and in Bern

Orientation and Welcome Event for new international Master- and PhD Students

u^b

Table of Contents

1. Swiss Pass
2. Half Fare Card
3. Local Public Transport
4. Libero Network
5. SBB Mobile App

u^b

Swiss Pass

The SwissPass card is your key to mobility and leisure. You can use it to buy the Half Fare Travelcard, GA Travelcard, fare network travelcard or Leisure Travelcard, as well as a varied range of offers from SwissPass partners. You can also show the card on your smartphone.

@ www.sbb.ch

u^b

Half Fare Travelcard („Halbtax“)

- Annual subscription 185 CHF / 120 CHF
- 50 % discount on all travels by Swiss railway
- 50 % discount on many private mountain trains or ships
- Only minor discount on single fare tickets of local public transport (not 50%)!

We recommend that you purchase the Half Fare Card directly after arrival at the airport and save 50% on your first ride with Swiss railway.

Find out more on the webpage of SBB > travelcards and tickets

u^b Our local public transport

BERNMOBIL

- Vending machines in English, French, Italian
- Buy your ticket before entering the bus / tram

Postbus (yellow bus):

- regional routes, mountain buses etc.
- buy a ticket with the driver

Moonliner (M1-M20): night bus Thursday/Friday/Saturday

- Leaving from bus stops around the main trainstation after midnight

u^b

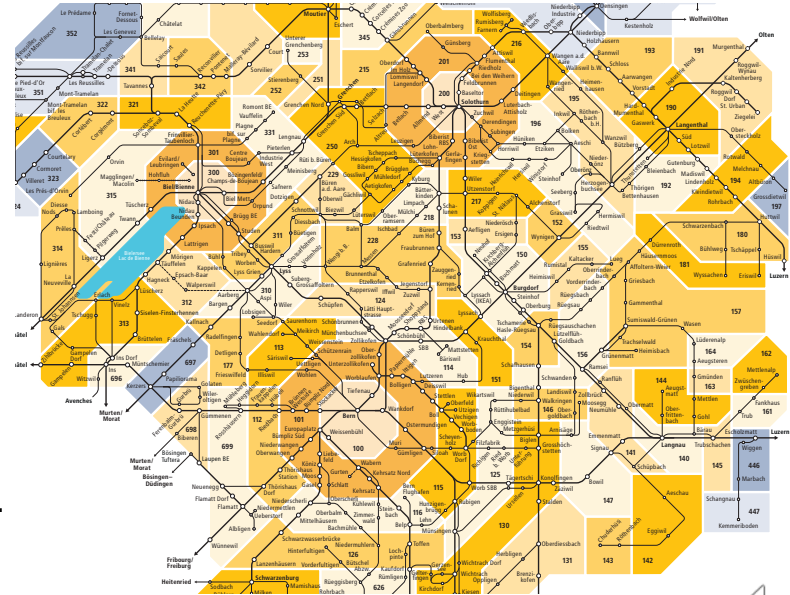

Libero public transport network

The “Libero” public transport network is divided into dozens of zones.

With a „Libero ticket“ you may use Bern Mobil buses, Postbus and trains – all within the pre-selected zones!

For travels within Bern you need to select the zone 100/101.

Tickets: single tickets, short-distance tickets, multiple-fare tickets, monthly/annual subscription.

u^b

Ticket purchase SBB Mobile App

Tickets can be purchased at

- Vending machines
- Travel centers
- Online or by App

Download the SBB Mobile App

u^b

Thank you for your attention

Orientation and Welcome Event

